FRUSTRATED WITH YOUR INVESTMENT RESULTS? INTRUST ADVISORS
INTRODUCES A NEW MINI COURSE DESIGNED TO HELP INVESTORS
LEARN THE SECRET TO LIFE CHANGING INVESTMENT RESULTS

Tampa, Florida – March 22, 2010 - InTrust Advisors (InTrust or “IA”) introduces a new free email mini-course entitled “Seven Days to Life Changing Investment Results.” Here is a summary of what the course covers:

- Why it’s important to recognized investment cycles and adjust your strategy for such periods
- Why “buy and hold” will not work right now
- Why “trend following” is the answer to secular bear markets
- Seven reasons why ETFs are a smart way to invest
- Why a good defensive game plan can add up to 3% annually to your investment returns
- Why CNBC can be detrimental to your investment health, and much more.

According to Jeff Diercks, the Company's Managing Director, "given the investment climate, we wanted to give investors a potential leg up by arming them with the information that they need to make better investment choices. We believe this information will be eye opening for many investors and will expose them to the professional investment methods used by firms like InTrust Advisors.”

This free mini course “Seven Days to Life Changing Investment Results” can be found at the Company’s web site at www.intrustadvisors.com/investment-management-services/.
